

Clinical Features in Patients with Wilson Disease

Hepatic

- Asymptomatic hepatomegaly
- Isolated splenomegaly
- Persistently elevated serum aminotransferase activity (AST, ALT)
- Fatty liver
- Acute hepatitis
- Resembling autoimmune hepatitis
- Cirrhosis: compensated or decompensated
- Acute liver failure

Neurological

- Movement disorders (tremor, involuntary movements)
- Drooling, dysarthria
- Rigid dystonia
- Pseudobulbar palsy
- Dysautonomia
- Migraine headaches
- Insomnia
- Seizures

Psychiatric

- Depression
- Neurotic behaviours
- Personality changes

- Psychosis

Other Systems

- Ocular: Kayser-Fleischer rings, sunflower cataracts
- Cutaneous: Iunulae ceruleae
- Renal abnormalities: aminoaciduria and nephrolithiasis
- Skeletal abnormalities: premature osteoporosis and arthritis
- Cardiomyopathy, dysrhythmias
- Pancreatitis
- Hypoparathyroidism
- Menstrual irregularities; infertility, repeated miscarriages

If you need help in understanding what any of these terms are, please go to our page on definitions.

©2003-2009 Wilson's Disease Association International

info@wilsonsdisease.org | Disclaimer

1802 Brookside Drive, Wooster, OH 44691

888-264-1450 | 330-264-1450

Website powered by Network Solutions®