

Dedicated out of Love and Concern for the Welfare of All People Everywhere to anyone who supposes their education to impugn the Holy Bible, The Holy Scriptures as contained in the canonized Old and New Covenants, the Word of GOD, as to compare it with common inscription practices or literary inaccuracy:

I am surprised at myself that I did not speak up when the Holy Bible was compared in class to common inscription practices, especially since it contains the words of Eternal Life and all creation reflects them, that people in ignorance of these words are dying horribly and suffer in this present life, and if they fail to meet and be reconciled to the Author perish terribly. I have learned over time, that I prefer to go to an instructor first with the knowledge, not wanting to embarrass anyone, but when something of such great importance is uttered to sway the minds of those who may be in ignorance, I take it very seriously. You may never meet someone who has had as many death and near death experiences as I. Or someone who knows beyond all doubt that the words contained in the Holy Bible are true because I am a living eyewitness that YAHOSHUAH (JESUS CHRIST) is resurrected indeed and is Alive to answer all who call upon HIM.

At the same time I can acknowledge that some translations, especially modern ones of the Holy Bible have been intentionally skewed (and so can agree with you); I can also argue that there is no other book in the entire world that comes close to being as literarily accurate. In other words, historically, the modern authorized versions in every language hold true to the original codices; even more than last year's printing of a dictionary or encyclopedia that's been reprinted this year with annotations and updates. (In other words, GOD's WORD, the HOLY BIBLE, is timeless; doesn't need updates or revisions; other than transliterations into languages and dialects of what was originally recorded, but other works created by man are constantly changing; for example, the theory of evolution was just a flawed theory when conceived and though renounced by it's originator, has been taught as fact without one shred of proof to this very day, and, in fact, has been disproven by science repeatedly. During it's dissemination by eugenic fascists and perverts wanting to brainwash young people into sexual deviancy (historical documented fact; not my opinion), laying aside the fact of Divine Creation, and thereby laying aside His Instructions for Life (especially regarding sexual behavior), it has been modified repeatedly and hoax after hoax in an attempt to give the renounced, flawed theory some validity. It has been championed by the likes of Margaret Sanger, an outspoken eugenicist, who founded Planned Parenthood, which should be more aptly named planned American Holocaust, causing the deaths of over 50 million innocent babies, in America alone, much to the delight of the eugenic fascists who plant the abortion mills in the poorest neighborhoods as a form of population management. I don't want to digress too much; just enough to point out that anyone passing opinions even by inference to the degradation of the Holy Bible, is in fact, contributing to real deaths and real destruction.)

Some facts you didn't present. The Holy Bible had scribes that were trained JUST FOR transcribing the scrolls (NO OTHER BOOKS). They were zealots, that feared GOD and believed their soul could be damned if they erred in the transcription. When they came to the name of GOD, they had to go through an entire ritual of soul and body cleansing just to make the marks of His Name (this ritual could take an entire day). Just one complete transcription could be an entire lifetime of dedicated work. Brave Men and Women of GOD forged the way into translations often on penalties of imprisonment, torture and death down through the centuries; these people were Dedicated! One of the scrolls of the Old Covenant is on display in Jerusalem. It is the scroll of the Messianic Chapter (53) in Isaiah. Archeologists and secular historians thought for sure that the find would prove how much the Holy Bible had digressed from original intent; instead it only solidified the veracity of Christ's words, "...it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one jot or one tittle of the law to fail..." (Lk 16:17) In the King James English this was understood; as the transliterations confirm, that everything we behold can pass away more easily than a dot of an "i" or cross of a "t" in the Torah (the Law, the Instructions of GOD for Life). The Holy Bible was not sent to common scribes of books for translation and to even infer this is demonstrating lack of knowledge of history. The Holy Bible was the ONLY BOOK, and in dialects to this day, remains the ONLY written work a tribe has (Wycliffe Translators and Publishers)! It was for the Holy Bible that great innovations were made in printing and publication. The Holy Bible plowed the way for these secular professions and stands alone in it's veracity. No other book of antiquity has as many original manuscripts surviving the centuries and even the millenniums whereby we can compare modern translations. Thousands and even tens of thousands still exist today! The next most is some 600 or so of Homer's Iliad and it's earliest complete manuscript dates 13th century, while remnants that have been compiled and other complete scrolls of the books of the Old Covenant pre-date even Christ's Incarnation; and of the New Covenant shortly thereafter! I'm not going to rewrite an apologetic like Josh McDowell's "Evidence that Demands a Verdict Vol 1 & 2" which gives anyone with any power of reason, pause to rethink if they don't believe the Holy Bible is the Word of GOD, but I will take serious issue if the scribing of the Holy Bible is compared to other written works, when factual evidence states quite clearly that it stands alone as the most literarily accurate book in the entire world by far!

At least four places in the Scriptures GOD warns not to add to or take away from His Words that He has caused to be spoken and written; most often quoted is Rev 22:18 which speaks so clearly of the consequences. The only reason modern translations are beginning to stray so wildly is that Christ prophesied in the last days the earth would be filled with an abundance of false teachers and prophets who would pervert his words, speaking and uttering (and writing) perverse things whom He would destroy with the brightness of His Glorious Return. Commonly scribed works do not carry Divine Consequences for alteration. The Holy Bible factually, archeologically, historically, logically, and truthfully is not to be compared with common inscription practices of secular material.

Because it is a matter of the greatest importance for every soul, if I hear opinion that could sway ignorant souls toward hell fire openly spoken in my presence, though I have respect for all persons, I will and must speak my conscience. There is no other Book inerrant in prophecy, inerrant in science, inerrant in history, inerrant period. There is no other written work like it in all the Universe. May I never again hear it compared to the ever changing whims of the fluid fantasies of other works of men. It is most Uncommon, Most Unique, and, should be always, Most Revered!

Written in love, for those who through the deceptions of persuasion have perched upon foolish disputations of the so called educated in this world, to miss out on the Greatest Treasures given by GOD in all Creation and confirmed in His Written Word, the Holy Bible, the foundation upon which all other works are to be built upon and compared.

Sincerely: Michael Swenson

P.S. I'm not trying to fail the class...☺ and I'm not trying to offend or upset persons to make them more defensive against GOD; but if you knew beyond ALL doubt, Heaven and Hell were real, and that people must be reconciled to GOD through Christ or they would not only suffer in this life (never finding their Divine Purpose because they never came to know the Divine) but suffer also when they passed on, wouldn't you try your best to persuade everyone you met to rethink; if you really knew they didn't know Him yet?! I can't say I care for others, if I apathetically remain silent at crucial moments of inter-intro- and intra-spection. I meet religious people all the time, even those who think of themselves as Christians, that still don't know Him (Jer 31:33,34). I don't consider myself important or special, but I am obligated, I do have responsibility; it is my duty, to inform others that we must all know GOD or in our great ignorance we will destroy one another and even all creation if He didn't intervene. (This is prophetic but can be seen as no other creature on earth goes around blowing up the world and all the innocent life in that location with mass destruction like nuclear weaponry and yet more nations are almost daily endeavoring to such mutual annihilation. If it isn't WMDs preoccupying the minds of those who don't know GOD, it's GREED, that results in pollution of air, water, soil, and depletes nutrients creating death to species and eventually ourselves; or VICE that leads to every crime like uncontrolled lusts ruling the hearts and minds and causing the dissolution of marriages, families and leading to highest rates of teen suicides, drug addictions and abortions in history (America to Pray or Not to Pray by David Barton). Man, apart from GOD and His Instructions for Life, is hell bent on being hell bound and manifesting as much hellish death and destruction on planet earth as possible. Did you know our entire public education system was founded to teach every citizen what the Word of GOD, the Holy Bible, said so we could never be deceived again or ruled by tyranny? (wallbuilders.com for details). Did you realize that oaths of office in this country were given not just to the people but to GOD for over a century and a half of this nation's history? Now look at our nation, after the removal of the Elementary School First Grade Primer in 1930 that taught children truths from the Scriptures that collegiate seminaries touch on today. And how prayer was assaulted in the '60's and now even the common sense ten commandments are under attack. I was watching the news a few months ago and police were arresting grandmas and grandpas for protesting the removal of the ten commandments while at the same time they were protecting the "free speech" rights of gay pride day and NAMBLA! (talk about a tragic mis-interpretation of the First Amendment that was penned, and fought for by some of the godliest men and women in history!) So when I see the devastation of the nation, the world, but most heart-felt, the persons I meet, due to brain-washing in our public education system with the metaphysical fantasy of evolution and fiction taught in the name of science and history, in place of how true science and true history is finally catching up to and proves the complex subject matter covered in the Holy Bible; or listen to extreme lack of knowledge promulgated and postulated in an educational environment as if it were truth, it riles my every nerve to stand and reason with even those who unknowingly oppose themselves. If this nation and the world is to survive, every man, women and child must become intimately familiar with the contents of the Holy Bible; but most importantly it's Magnificent Author. Truly the Holy Bible is not to be compared with any other written work, other than that it stands alone as the Greatest Book of all time; truly the written words of GOD Almighty, the Creator of the Universe, given to and among men, women and children everywhere. It's worth a good and serious read cover to cover regularly throughout our entire life; throughout all the days of our journey here on earth.

Respectfully Submitted with Edification out of Love Intended:

Again.
